Miss Nancy Jeannine Oxford Becomes Bride Of Mr. Robert Scott Chenault

MRS. ROBERT SCOTT CHENAULT
Nancy Jeannine Oxford Before Her Marriage Saturday

Miss Nancy Jeannine Oxford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Oxford and Robert Scott Chenault, all of Appomattox, were married Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock in Memorial Methodist Church. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. S. E. Chenault and the late Mr. Chenault.

The Rev. R. A. Berzdoll performed the double ring ceremony before an altar of banked greens with branched candelabra's, with white urns filled with white mums and chrysanthemums, used on the pedestals.

Miss Peggy Godsey, organist and James Hall, vocalist presented a program of wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of slipper satin, with a scalloped neckline, appliques of imported lace outlined the full skirt ending in a chapel train. Her illusion veil was attached to a double crown of seed pearls. She carried a prayer book topped with a white orchid and showered with stephanotis.

Mrs. Donald Ferguson was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Paul Doss, aunt of the bride, Miss Patsy Seay, cousin of the bride, and Miss Ann Chenault, sister of the bridegroom, all of Appomattox, and Miss Shirley Overstreet, of Lynchburg.

Susan Doss, cousin of the bride and Kay Chenault, niece of the bridegroom, were flower girls.

William E. Chenault was his brother's best man. Ushers were Donald Ferguson, Gene Chenault, Norman Mayberry and Jack Layne.

After the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained with a reception in the church social hall.

The bride is a graduate of Appomattox High School and Phillips Business College.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Appomattox High School, served in the Korean War.

Mr. and Mrs. Chenault will make their home in Appomattox after a short wedding trip.
